

Trading Resumes at the Budapest Stock Exchange

Budapest, 28 June 2012

Budapest Stock Exchange informs its partners that trading resumes at 2.50 p.m.

About the Budapest Stock Exchange

The CEE Stock Exchange Group (CEESEG), which comprises of the stock exchanges of Budapest, Ljubljana, Prague and Vienna, is the largest stock exchange group in the region. CEESEG simplifies access to markets and trading with the aim to increase liquidity on the local exchanges. The CEESEG stock exchanges cooperate with 12 stock exchanges in Central and Eastern Europe and are recognised throughout the world for this unique expertise.