

KATALIN KERESZTYÉNNÉ DEÁK

She holds a degree in economics from the College of Finance and Accounting with major in accounting, and she has auditor qualification as well.

She started her career at Coopers and Lybrand Könyvvizsgáló Kft., the predecessor of the current PwC, where she gained experience as an auditor in accounting and taxation.

From 1996 to 1999, as chief accountant of Hypo Securities Hungaria Rt., her responsibilities included the set-up and operation of the entire accounting and financial organization.

Between 1999 and 2001, she was the chief financial officer of MKB Értékpapír és Befektetési Rt. Her responsibilities included the management of the financial and accounting area of the company, the management of securities clearing, back-office activities and supervisory reporting services and the development and supervision of controlling activities.

Subsequently, she continued her career at Credigen Bank, where she started as chief accountant in 2001, then worked as chief financial officer from 2004, and then she held the position of chief executive officer of the financial institution between 2010 and 2014, and then the position of executive manager until January 2016.

In January 2016, she was appointed as the chief financial officer of Budapest Bank Zrt. Her responsibilities included the management of the fields of finance, accounting, taxation, reporting, procurement, controlling and planning, as well as the management of ALM activities of the bank.

From November 2021 until April 2022, as managing director of strategy and controlling at the Hungarian Bankholding Ltd she was responsible for the operation of the analysis and controlling areas and the coordination of the strategic and financial planning processes of the business group.

She has English and German language knowledge.