Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matters	Diligences performed in relation to the Key Audit Matters
Valuation insurance contract liabilities and insurance contract assets
As at December 31 2023 the Company's Insurance and reinsurance contract liabilities are valued at thHUF 110,220,054 and thHUF 376,007 respectively, while the insurance contract assets thHUF 1,242,119 and reinsurance contract assets are valued at thHUF 2,558,051 respectively. (see notes 32-33 to the financial statements for details). Valuation of insurance and reinsurance contract assets and liabilities involves significant judgements and estimates particularly with respect to the estimation of the present value of future cash flows, eligibility of the different measurement models, identification of onerous contracts and estimation of the liabilities for incurred claims. These cash flows primarily include determination of the expected premium receipts, expected ultimate cost of claims and allocation of insurance acquisition cash flows which are within the contract boundaries. Calculation for these assets and liabilities includes estimation and involvement of actuarial experts in order to ensure appropriateness of methodology, assumptions and data used to determine the estimated future cash flows and the appropriateness of the discount rates used to determine the present value of these cash flows. We therefore consider this as a key audit matter.	We performed the following procedures in conjunction with our actuarial specialist: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understanding and evaluating the process, the design and implementation of the controls in place to determine valuation of Insurance and reinsurance contract assets and liabilities - tested the operating effectiveness of the controls in place - evaluated the appropriateness of the methodology, significant assumptions including risk adjustment, VFA, GMM, and PAA eligibility assessment, discount rates and expenses included within the fulfilment cash flows. This included consideration of the reasonableness of assumptions against actual historical experience and the appropriateness of any judgements applied. - we independently reperformed the calculation to assess the mathematical accuracy of the insurance and reinsurance contract assets and liabilities on selected classes of business, particularly focusing on largest provisions.

Disclosure impact of IFRS17 restatements	Diligences performed in relation to the Key Audit Matters
The Company is applying the IFRS 17 standard effective from January 1, 2023. The introduction of the standard was done retrospectively, which affected the Company's opening balances as of January 1, 2022. IFRS 17 is a complex accounting standard that requires significant judgment and interpretation in its implementation and affects the presentation, measurement, presentation, and disclosure of insurance contracts by the Company. In particular, the measurement models to be applied under the standard (variable fee approach, general model, or premium allocation approach), the risk adjustment, and the determination of the discount rate are of outstanding importance in terms of their comprehensive impact. Section 5.2 of the supplementary notes contains information on the above, the effects of the transition to the new standard. The new standard also sets significant requirements for the disclosure of financial statements. The audit of the IFRS 17 accounting policies' development and application, as well as the judgments, assumptions, and estimates used in measuring insurance contracts, required a high degree of auditor judgment, including the involvement of accounting and actuarial professionals. Due to the significance of the changes introduced by the standard, we considered the transition to the new standard to be a key audit matter.	Our audit procedures, among others, include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - assessing whether the judgements applied by the management in determining their accounting policies are in accordance with IFRS17 - using our specialist, evaluated the appropriateness of methodology used to determine discount rates at the transition date - evaluating the appropriateness of significant assumptions including risk adjustment, VFA, GMM, PAA eligibility assessment, discount rates and expenses included within the fulfillment cash flows - evaluation of the completeness, and the accuracy and relevance of the data used to determine the impact of IFRS17 adoption and restatement, and - evaluated the reasonableness of the quantitative and qualitative disclosures included in the financial statements in accordance with IFRS17.

Management is responsible for the other information and for the preparation of the consolidated business report in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Accounting Act and other regulations. Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements provided in the section of our independent auditor's report entitled "Opinion" does not apply to the other information.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the business report and, in doing so, consider whether the business report is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

This is an English translation of the Independent Auditor's Report on the 2023 consolidated financial statements of CIG Pannónia Életbiztosító Nyrt. issued in Hungarian. If there are any differences, the Hungarian language original prevails. This report should be read in conjunction with the complete statutory consolidated financial statements it refers to.

Furthermore, in accordance with the Accounting Act, our responsibilities regarding the consolidated business report also include reviewing the consolidated business report to assess whether the consolidated business report was prepared in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Accounting Act and other regulations, if any, including the assessment whether the consolidated business report complies with the requirements of Section 95/B (2) e) and f) of the Accounting Act, and to express an opinion on the above and on whether the consolidated business report is consistent with the consolidated financial statements. Furthermore, in accordance with the Accounting Act we shall make a statement whether the information referred to in Section 95/B. (2) a-d), g) and h) has been provided in the consolidated business report and whether the consolidated business report contains the non-financial statement provided for in Section 134 (5).

When fulfilling this responsibility we have considered the following law: Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/815 of 17 December 2018 on Supplementing Directive 2004/109/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards on the specification of a single electronic reporting format ("ESEF Regulation"), as such prescribing specific requirements for the consolidated business report, in relation with forming our opinion on the consolidated business report.

In our opinion, the business report of the Group, including the information required according to Subsection (2) e) and f) of Section 95/B of the Hungarian Accounting Law for 2023 is consistent, in all material respects, with the 2023 consolidated financial statements of the Group and the relevant requirements of the Hungarian Accounting Law. We also confirm that the Group have made available the information required according to Subsection (2) a-d) and g)-h) of Section 95/B of the Hungarian Accounting Law and that the consolidated business report includes the non-financial statement as required by Subsection (5) of Section 134 of the Hungarian Accounting Law and other relevant regulation listed above.

Further to the above, based on the knowledge we have obtained about the Group and its environment in the course of the audit we are required to report whether we have identified any material misstatement in the business report, and if so, the nature of the misstatement in question. We have nothing to report in this regard.

When we read the Annual report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with EU IFRSs and the supplementary requirements of the Hungarian Accounting Law relevant for consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with EU IFRSs, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Hungarian National Auditing Standards and with applicable laws and regulations in Hungary, including also Regulation (EU) No. 537/2014 will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Hungarian National Auditing Standards and with applicable laws and regulations in Hungary, including also Regulation (EU) No. 537/2014, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters.
