Extract from Resolution No. 369/2026 of the Budapest Stock Exchange Plc.

Budapest, 21 September 2026

The Budapest Stock Exchange (hereinafter: Exchange) modifies the Maximum Daily Price Movement in all expiration months of the USDTRY futures contracts listed in the Derivatives Section of the Exchange for today's (21 September 2026) Exchange Day.

- bid prices may be up to 5% higher than the Base price;
- offer prices may be up to 5% lower than the Base price.

In order to set the new order price limitations, the Exchange decided on halting the trading of USDTRY futures today (21 September 2026) from 12:00 pm to 12:05 pm.

Reasoning

There were such significant price movements on the market of the USDTRY futures contract's underlying market which influences the price movements of the futures product. According to the General Terms of Service of the Budapest Stock Exchange Plc., Book Five - Regulations on Trading, Chapter 3 Section 26.5.5, the Exchange is entitled to decide to cancel or modify the Maximum Daily Price Movement upon agreement with KELER CCP, if there is a significant price movement on the market of the underlying product. According to the General Terms of Service of the Budapest Stock Exchange Plc., Book Five - Regulations on Trading, Chapter 3 Section 26.6.4 the Exchange may order the temporary halt of trading of the Contract when modifying the Maximum Daily Price Movement.

Based on the above, the Exchange decided in accordance with the operative part.
